Editorial

WELCOME TO APPOMATTOX

WITH the completion of the hard-surface road to Ben Creek, Gladstone and Oakville from Appomattox, a fine section of the county is given a modern outlet. The splendid people of that section were well-deserving of modern transportation facilities. For quite a while school children from that section have been attending Appomattox schools and out here at the court house community we feel that they are one with us. Therefore, it is nuuecessary for us to extend a welcome to these fine people to come more frequent trips to see us. However we say, "Come on up sometime" Bent Creek, Gladstone, and Oakville!

A WORD OF PRAISE

The Times-Virginian believes in words of praise for the things Therefore, we must say that anyone who has ever attended Judge Robert F. Hutchinson's court has surely been impressed in the with the fact that in this sterling judge our legal affairs are in the hands of a most capable, fearless, learned and fair judge. His record is such that all in his circuit have learned to revere him as a friend. We predict that someday his talent and ability will bring the rewards of a higher court.

WHY THEY STAY DULL

THE Times-Virginian has a notion that one reason for the dullness of the stock and bond markets in spite of unmistakable evidence of booming business all over the nation, can be explained. Congress meets soon. It is a known fact that few bank-makers will be out to "Get something done" about the speculation wave ending in the crash of 1929 and will no doubt pass stringent stock and bond transaction legislation. Most of those who have money to play the market are wise enough to "lay-off" until they see what Congress is going to do. Congress may make it so that the future of the exchange will be doubtful and never reach its 1928 peak.

F. D. AND AL

THE bright mark of the entire career of Al Smith has been his obvious plain-spoken ess and courage to utter his convictions. From his pen and lips have come words that the timid and discreet would have kept unsaid. Therefore, when Al comes out in opposition to the policies of President Roosevelt, it is not a new role for the former governor of New York.

With that much said, it is the opinion of the rank and file of America that it is the duty of the nation to give support to the remarkable administration of Roosevelt and that whereas criticism is always permissable in a free country, that nevertheless, freedom of speech and an undermining of the recovery program are to be confused. It is, therefore to be hoped that Al's criticism will wear itself out in words and not be followed through in an anti-administration campaign at this stage of the game.

COLUMBIA AND STANFORD

COLUMBIA University has long been one of the top-rank ing educational institutions in the nation. But, like Chicago University, has never been a consistent world-beater in football.

This year was another story, however, and on New Year's day Columbia will represent the east in the Pasadena Rose Bowl against mighty Stanford University for the mythical American football championship.

Most of us feel that stronger teams might have been chosen to represent the east than Columbia. However, football is largely a matter of spirit, so here's wishing luch to Lou Little, Cliff Montgomery and their mates.

School Notes

Pamplin H. S.

The junior community league held its regular meeting Tuesday in the school auditorium. A very entertaining musical program was conducted by John Cunningmam. The chairman of the school ground committee, Bernard Richeson, gave a report of work done to improve and clean the school grounds. He also urged the pupils to try to keep the grounds as clean as possible.

The attendance banner for this month was awarded to the 1st and 2nd year high school room.

The members of the school faculty who attended the state teacher's convention in Richmond were, Miss Merle Davis, Miss Pattye Brandon. Miss Lee Warren Hammer and Miss Isabelle O'Brien.

On Tuesday, November 28, the first and second grades gave a very interesting Thanksgiving program.

The girls' and boys' basketball teams of this school played the Prospect girls team on the Prospect court Tuesday night, November 28. Both girls and boys teams of Prospect won.

The girls' basket ball team of this school will play the Appomattox team Tuesday, December 5, and the Prospect team Thursday, Decemger 7.

Time Lost is Money Lost

It costs money to be sick. You see it directly if your pay envelope is short. You lose out on some important work if you live on a farm or if you are one of the few who are not docked for lost time. You can't afford to show up on the job unless you are feeling fit. The boss wants results—not excuses.

How many times do Gas on Stomach, Headache, Sour Stomach, "That Tired Feeling," That "Morning After" Feeling, Neuralgia, Rheumatic, Sciatic, Muscular or Periodic Pains keep you at home or interfere with your doing a full day's work?

All these troubles are caused or made worse by too much acid in your body. To correct this condition take

ALKA-SELTZER

The New Pain Relieving, Alkalizing, Effervescent Tablet.

It is called Alka-Seltzer because it makes a sparkling alkaline drink, and as it contains an analgesic (Acetyl-Salicylate) it first relieves the pain of everyday ailments and then by restoring the alkaline balance corrects the cause when due to excess acid. Alka-Seltzer is pleasant to take, harmless, non-laxative.

Why don't you try it? Get a drink at your drug store soda fountain for a nickel. Buy a package for home use.

Alumni Defeated High School Football Team, Saturday, 12-

(Editor's Note: The following contribution comes from a member of the local school alumni football team and is published as submitted.)

Funeral services of the late Appomattox high school football team were conducted here last Saturday afternoon at 3 P. M., with the Reverend John Curtis Caldwell officiating. The burial was in the local Fair grounds. The casket was furnished and funeral directed by the alumni undertakers. Shrouds were furnished by the citizens of the village.

Never before have the local undertakers had to bury such a large body. Instead of the usual depth of six (feet) it was twelve (12-0).

Active pallbearers were: John Alvis, Other Godsey, Billy Hebbard, Ned Hancock, John Booth, Lewis McDearmon, Francis Hamilton, Sonny Harwood, Raymond Jamerson and William Ford.

Flower bearers were: Dot and Pat Sears, Berta Dinwiddie, Eloise Abgitt, Mary Della Schmidt, Virginia and Carolyn Moses, Willie Anderson, Beth Cralle, Polly Furbush and Jane Burke.

The deceased had been in bad health for the past two months suffering from personal loss(es).

The deceased is survived by its faithful wife, Ellen Ann and father, William T. Smith, and the following brothers: Scobby Thomas and "Lightning" Hesson of Gladstone and "Snooks" Evans, of Appomattox.

In Memoriam

In memory of our loved one Miss Annie Elizabeth Ransom who departed this life five months ago today, July 8, 1933

Because of her our hearts are warmer,
And we have richer courage When needing to be strong,
Because of her our thoughts are kinder, and we have found a clearer vision
Of things that are worth while.

With her we have shared
Laughter, sympathy's, tears,
And felt our hearts growing ever softer
Through the fast moving years.

Because of her we go more gladly.
Where else we would have walked in pain,
And to have known her golden friendship,
Has been unmeasured gain.

Oh, how we miss her.
Words cannot tell,
Miss the one we loved so well,
Not now but in the coming years
It may be in the better land—
We'll read the meaning of our tears—
And there we'll understand.

There the circle will be whole again.
As here it was broken,
Heaven will the mysteries explain—
And then we'll [illegible]

Though our hearts now break with sorrow,
By the grief so hard to bear,
We shall meet her some glad morning
In the Heavenly home so fair.

There our loved one has been transplanted.
For our coming does watch and wait,
In that Heavenly garden growing
There within the golden gate.

There with her mother safe in that vale,
Watch for the day when we too will sail over the tide
Into the harbor close by their side.

Oh, the thoughts of that Saturday morning.
Oh how it breaks our hearts,
But in Heaven we'll meet her
Never more to depart.
With loving remembrance,
Claude and Elvira
